

Navigating the HR Career Path: Career Development for Students & Emerging Professionals

Thursday, October 8, 2026 | 6:00 PM - 7:30 PM

Whether you're currently studying Human Resources, working toward a certification, exploring your options in an entry-level HR position, or just breaking into the field, it takes more than a classroom. To truly embed yourself in the profession, it helps to understand all the tools you can employ while Navigating the HR Career Path.

We'll discuss: HR career ladders and salaries, SHRM HR competencies to grow your career, accomplishments and how to leverage them, resumes, networking and interviewing notes, HR certification suggestions, National SHRM and SHRM Northwest New Jersey Chapter benefits, and advice from HR leaders.

This is a special event created just for students and emerging professionals, designed to support you as you take your next steps into HR. Free on Zoom—this has been developed just for you, and we look forward to seeing you at the event!

Presenter: Maya Ollson, Founder & Director, Kokopella High Touch Outplacement
Maya, dubbed The Resume Queen by her clients, founded Kokopella in 2007 to ensure candidates receive very personalized outplacement services to help them conduct an effective search and shorten it. She's a Past Chapter President and runs the Chapter's Transition Services Program to help you learn how to conduct a productive search and shorten yours. Come learn from her HR Career Development and Job Search wisdom.
